Subject: Governor's Council on Disability Legislative Education Project reminder

Sign up for the 2014 Legislative Education Project

The start of the 2014 legislative session is six days away! Don't forget to register to participate in the Legislative Education Project (LEP) webcasts, teleconference calls, and Capitol training to be a part of the action!

Whether you know nothing about the legislative process or advocacy or are a seasoned advocate, the LEP has something for everyone!! The LEP is a great way to get involved in disability issues and become informed so you can educate new and experienced legislators.

The program dates are listed below. Registration is completed online by filling out the form at <http://disability.mo.gov/gcd/lepreistration.htm>.
