Teen Institute (TI) is a 7-day training camp designed to teach Deaf and Hard of Hearing teens to be education and prevention advocates among their peers. Recognizing that teens influence their peers, the curriculum focuses on drug and alcohol abuse preventions, HIV/AIDS awareness, bullying and social media awareness, and other issues critical to teenagers. Drug and alcohol abuse is a critical issue facing today's youth. Participants will leave TI equipped with the basic knowledge, skills, and understanding to work with adult sponsors to promote alcohol and drug abuse prevention in their home, school, and community. Teen Institute is a collaborative effort between the L.E.A.D. Institute and the Department of Mental Health-Drug and Alcohol Abuse. Click here to view the flyer.
