Presenter: Shelly Tisius
MICS-Master/5 and NIC

Date & Time September 3, 2024- October 18, 2024 | Virtual

Objectives:

As interpreters we want to deliver the message ethically and neutrally. This course teaches us how our energy affects the environment; positive or negative. And teaches techniques to avoid absorbing negative energy in our environments and how positive energy maintains our neutrality. This workshop is an enlightening and inspiring ride that reveals 10 rules for approaching life and work drawing inspiration from "The Energy Bus." No one goes through life without facing ethical challenges. The outcome is determined by our energy – positive or negative. Using positive, forward energy we can impact the experience for all consumers (deaf, interpreter, hearing). Participants will learn practical techniques about how their energy affects environments and outcomes. This transformative workshop is designed to equip students with the tools and mindset needed for long-term success. You will be guided through interactive exercises with expert mentoring.
